EMPORIA STATE UNIVERSITY MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Emporia State University proudly offers academic merit scholarships to qualified international students who have been admitted for an undergraduate degree.

Students qualify for the academic merit scholarship based on High School Grade Point Average (GPA) (starting from 3.0, in a scale of 1-4) combined with SAT scores (starting at 980). Students who took the ACT also qualify. GPA's will be calculated by the Office of International Education at the time of admission.

For more information, please contact the Office of International Education at Emporia State University: oisa@emporia.edu. Te; +1-620-341-5374
